This residential estate offers a captivating and modern waterfront lifestyle. This property has been designed with seamless indoor and outdoor living and entertaining in mind. The centre of the home looks out to the water on one side and a beautifully landscaped court yard on the other. With functionality being key in the design here, the wing offers a dual accommodation option that can be used as a separate living or form part of your home. The option is yours!

With the calming water views as your backdrop, the alfresco area also overlooks the large pool.
